Baby Gender Mentor Test / Acu-Gen

Concerns have been raised about whether the Baby Gender Mentor test, which is intended to reveal gender to expectant parents, can accurately do so, according to a report on National Public Radio (NPR).

The Baby Gender Mentor test is made by Acu-Gen. NPR reports that thousands have ordered the test, and that several women have asserted that their tests were wrong.

If you bought Acu-Gen's Baby Gender Mentor test, and you would like to know more about your legal rights, call our lawyers or e-mail our law firm by submitting a Potential Case Form.
